Springer Theatricals is the national touring unit of the famous Springer Opera House, one of America's premier historic theatre destinations. Founded in 1871 in Columbus, Georgia, the Springer is Georgia's official State Theatre and a National Historic Landmark. The world's greatest stage artists have performed with the Springer company including Edwin Booth, Ethel Barrymore, George M. Cohan, Irving Berlin, and Agnes DeMille in the early days and more recently, Mary Martin, Truman Capote, Hal Holbrook, Marvin Hamlisch, Burt Reynolds, Garrison Keilor and Branford Marsalis. Today, the Springer is among Georgia's top ranked theatre company with mainstage, studio and children's theatre productions plus an acclaimed theatre academy with more than 700 acting students.

The Springer can adapt to any venue space. Their flexible personnel know precisely how to transform even the most limited facility into a workable performance space. The attractive scenery and lighting is specially designed to ADAPT! Whether it's a fully equipped theatre, student center, banquet hall or multipurpose room, Springer is prepared and rigged to make it WORK FOR YOU!

The Springer provides for the show: scenery, costumes, lighting (if you have none), props, sound and transportation. They even provide our popular PROMO PACKET to help you prepare for the event, print programs, and publicize the show. Springer Theatricals' current touring productions include Route 66 and A Closer Walk With Patsy Cline.
