

State Art Collection Internship

Where: 75 Fifth Street, Atlanta (MARTA Accessible)

Commitment: 10-15 hours per week

Reports to: Director and Database Manager

Dress: Business Casual

Job Description:

Georgia's State Art Collection (SAC) is an extensive, vibrant chronicle of work created by Georgia artists from the 1970s to the 1990s. Each piece in the collection was juried by a panel of experts. It is a state asset that serves as an educational tool, preserves the state's artistic heritage and disseminates knowledge about the art and artists of Georgia. The SAC Intern will assist with updating a comprehensive list of all currently held pieces of art, their location and condition cross referenced against information in the GCA database and various loan schedules. In addition this position will support the Director in the management of SAC loans and have the opportunity to be involved with the SAC digitization project which is being initiated in partnership with the New Georgia Encyclopedia.

Internship opportunities with Georgia Council for the Arts are open to undergraduate or graduate college students. Individuals who have graduated within the past year or less may also be considered.

Communications, marketing, journalism, political science or public administration majors will benefit the most from this experience. The work requires a detail-oriented, organized and enthusiastic team player. The internship term will complete at the end of the time required by the college or until the intern has completed 480 maximum hours. Georgia Council for the Arts is open to meeting the need of requirements for the course credit the intern is completing. Internships are unpaid. Position is open until filled.
