Paula Larke, nationally acclaimed musician, motivational speaker, and storyteller also spoke to the group. She is a highly sought-after grassroots educator who follows the philosophy of popular educator Paulo Freire. Larke is an ardent activist for quality public school education, employing her training in violence awareness and prevention, substance abuse prevention, and conflict resolution in raising the level of academic skills in young and adult learners.